

On the zeros of the L-function associated to the cubic theta function

Nikolai Proskurin

Abstract

In the talk we consider the L-function associated (by means of the Mellin transform) to the Kubota-Patterson cubic theta function. We develop a method for numerically computing the L-function and report on computation of its zeros.