Third set of Problems. Second part of three.

1. Compare and contrast the following zero-finding methods: Newton's and Krawczyk's.

2. Deduce the error commited when computing integrals using the following methods: midpoint, trapezoid and Simpson's.